

St Vincent's Star

Has been awarded to.

For writing a fantastic diary entry imagining she was a member of Shackleton's crew aboard The Endurance. Emilie created a detailed plan and ensured she carefully followed it during her writing lesson. As a result, Emilie's diary entry was engaging and enjoyable to read. She included fronted adverbials, rhetorical questions and wrote about her character's thoughts to add an increasing amount of detail.

Well done Emilie! Keep up the hard work!
