

English Task – 19.6.20

Yesterday you began writing your stories about Rabbit and Bears adventure and what happened next with Castor.

Lots of you made a great start writing your first paragraph and I was able to give you some feedback to improve.

Today's English focus is:

Published Writing

Task

Today is an opportunity to finish off your writing from yesterday (if you haven't already).

Once you have completed your writing, edit your work. Use the checklist below to help you.

Editing Checklist
1. Clarity Read your work, asking yourself 'Will this make sense to another reader?' 'Find any confusing spots and rewrite them so that they are clearer and easier to read.'
2. Punctuation Have you included all of the important punctuation? Check over and correct any missing punctuation. Check that you avoid using and or then over and over again.
3. Spelling Is your spelling correct? Circle words that feel like they may not be correct and try them again. Ask for help if you need to.
4. Improve Can your writing be improved in any way? Have you made sure you have included lots of description in your writing? Can you think of even better vocabulary to use?

Think back to your punctuation task on Tuesday and put on your detective hat to read over your own sentences and correct them.

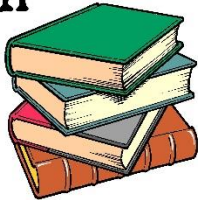

Once you have edited your work, write your final draft in your best handwriting with all of the corrections, or you can type up your finished work on the blog.

Then, write your first name on your work and upload a photo of it. I will add it to the gallery, where I can give you feedback.

I look forward to reading your amazing finished pieces!
