

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Grammar Worksheet

A. Rewrite the following sentences with capital letters and full stops:

1. mary and niall went to bristol to see the college facilities
2. cardiff high school is a secondary school in cardiff
3. st vincent's is a primary school in marylebone
4. i will go to spain in the summer i will probably go in july
5. hollywood is the home of tv programmes like the simpsons and american idol

B. Write the following passage with correct capital letters:

it was an exciting first half manchester united were pleased with their performance, especially the great job done by their goalkeeper. it was ideal weather for the game. last monday it had rained for hours and hours. today the sun was shining. if they kept performing this well, the coach said that they would have a good chance of making the final in september. all they needed to do to improve was to listen to everything he had taught them.

C. Rewrite these sentences, putting the commas in the correct places:

1. The skills needed for mountaineering are stamina strength determination and head for heights.
2. For the picnic I packed sun cream sandwiches orange juice and plenty of crisps.
3. Little Mix Marcus Collins and Amelia Lily were finalists in the X- Factor.
4. The new Nissan Primo has four-wheel drive anti-lock braking system and a sporty exterior.
5. One Direction will be performing in London Cardiff Dublin and Belfast in January.

D. Rewrite these sentences with apostrophes:

1. The bag did not belong to Amy.
2. The boy was not anywhere to be seen in the supermarket.
3. It is my birthday next week.
4. He was not in any of the family photographs.